ARCHBISHOP VISIT

GARDEN OF REMEMBRANCE

NPC received only two responses to its survey about the proposed Garden of Remembrance in the cemetery. Given the lack of interest, NPC determined that for now, it should not spend public money on creating this. People are still able to bury cremated remains in the Churchyard or to purchase full size burial spaces in the cemetery for this purpose.

SUPERFAST BROADBAND

Thank you to everyone who took part in our superfast broadband survey, which was set up to help those residents living on roads that are excluded from both KCOM and BT's rollouts. Those affected will have received a letter from Graham Stuart MP. Once things have settled down after the election, he intends to visit Newbald and take part in a press photo shoot, at which he will formally receive the survey results and hand them over to KCOM. We would like as many villagers as possible to take part in this photo shoot and will publicise details once they are confirmed. Given the delay, there is still time to fill in the survey if you have not done so Newbald.com/newbald-parish-broadband-survey. (Postcodes 4SR, 4TW, 4TL, 4SW, 4FF, 4TR, 4SL, 4ST and 4TN).

The Archbishop of York visited Newbald on 7 April 2017. Revd. Bushby of St. Nicholas' Church described the visit as follows:

"The presence of the Archbishop of York created a real mix of buzz and excitement amongst the children of Newbald School. They had been living with the anticipation of seeing him in person at their Easter Service ever since it was announced that he was coming. To see their heads turn with delight as he processed into St Nicholas' Church was a real blessing. The children created a real sense of Glory as they told and sang the Easter Story, so well prepared by Head teacher Morag Sinclair and all the staff. With the bongo drum placed by his chair, the Archbishop instantly turned their heads when he accompanied their singing and his talk captivated all their attention. He service. The Archbishop said what a lovely place and that it was great to hear that this local business had supported the church's fund raising efforts.

The Archbishop soon joined the children preparing soup at the Newbald Church Rooms Young Peoples Project and appreciated being asked to present the prizes to the children and he greatly enjoyed their singing. During his blessing of the porch and the adjoining facilities, those standing nearby were well splashed with water. The Archbishop enjoyed meeting all the staff and customers at Drewton's Farm Shop who had invited us for afternoon tea. A joint of lamb was prepared for the Palace Easter Sunday Lunch and we all appreciated the food and their lamb stew was a real feast. This was followed by the children asking questions about his role as an Archbishop, his family life and formative development. The fact that he was one of thirteen children, and now living in a Palace, where the Queen had stayed, was a big surprise to the children and their parents. His testing of their maths, 'a third of a ninth' was answered by one of the mothers."

NEWBALD BECKSIES: REQUEST FOR HELP

"Natural England and the Yorkshire Wildlife Trust are looking for any local knowledge of the past management of the Becksies on Beverley road. The site is a Site of Special Scientific Interest (SSSI) which makes the site of national importance for its wetland plant communities; especially those associated with chalk influenced ground water. We would welcome any information on the past management of the site, including stock grazing patterns (animal type, grazing levels, times of year) and water management, specifically the origin of the pipe which runs along the edge of the trees at the back of the site (its age, construction and where the water comes from and goes to would be particularly interesting). Any copies of old photos of the site would also be most welcome. Any information would be useful to help shape future management of the site and to identify any areas for further research." Natural England Conservation Adviser - Chris McGregor - chris.mcgregor@naturalengland.org.uk - 0300 060 1921

POSTER APPEAL
We are still receiving complaints about old posters being left up around the village. Please remember to remove them once your event is over. Thank you.

NEWBALD VILLAGE HALL NEWS

The Committee would like to thank everyone who has supported the events we have had over the past few months at NVH. The best attended was Babajack and generated the most income on the bar! The Pub Quiz was a great night generating £400 for Prostate Cancer and funds for NVH. The films overall broke even and NVH committee members, who were willing to underwrite the expenses, did not have to dig into their funds. We would like to continue with the films – they cost around £120 per showing (mostly for the licence!) We were wondering if there might be someone in the village who is passionate about film and who may be interested in running a specialist film club offering a slightly more eclectic choice. If this might be your thing, drop an email to John at newbaldmusic@gmail.com so we can talk over the possibilities.

We have some great events lined up at the Village Hall. 'Salsa Verde' with the Badapple Theatre Company is on Saturday 23 September and on Saturday 7 October we have live music with 'The Fugitives'. Badapple Theatre Company are back on 23 December with 'The Elves and The Carpenter' for a children's Christmas pantomime! Watch out for events posted on the poles or on Facebook, which could come up in between! Again – thank you Newbald.

SCHOOL SUMMER FAYRE

Newbald Primary School is holding a fundraiser for Dove House Hospice on Fri 23 June from 2pm until 4pm. The School Council has organised fun, games and refreshments. It would be lovely to welcome as many people from our local community as possible in order to raise funds for a very worthy cause. Hope you can come and join us!

NPFA NEWS & EVENTS

NPFA would like to thank the villagers of Newbald for their continued patience while the playground is in the process of refurbishment. We are having the fence and some of the equipment painted and also new equipment will be installed in June.

This year our Newbald Galafest of Culture is on the Sat 24th June 2017 from 1pm onwards. Please come along – a fun day with games, craft tent, food, bar and music including Bosom Buddies, Jack Green and more.

WI NEWS & UPCOMING EVENTS

WIN hosted a Federation Wolds Way walk on 10th June with lunch and on 21st June we are running a trip to Wentworth Stately Home. If any villagers are interested, please contact any WI committee member or Di on 07731651029.
